Workshop on Professionalism and Codes of Ethics in the ICT Industry
Organised as part of the ARC Linkage Project Ethics and Regulation in the ICT Industry (Partners: CSU, ANU, ACS), and as part of the project of the CCE of the ACS to revise the ACS Code of Ethics.

Venue: Room 2177 Haydon-Allen Building, ANU

Date: Wednesday, 12 July 2006

Time: 9:30

Programme:

9:30 - 11:00
Professor Deborah Johnson,
Olsson Professor of Applied Ethics & Department Chair Department of Science, Technology and Society University of Virginia, USA

Topic: Professionalism and Codes of Ethics

11:00 - 11-20 Morning tea

11:20 - 12:20
Professor Simon Rogerson
Director, Centre for Computing and Social Responsibility Faculty of Computing Sciences and Engineering, De Montfort University, UK

Topic: Developing the BCS Code of Good Practice

12:20 - 1:15 Lunch

1:15 - 2:45
Professor Simon Rogerson

Topic: Applying the BCS experience to the ACS Code of Ethics

2:45 - 3:00 Afternoon tea

3:00 – 3:15
Philip Argy
President of the ACS

3:15 – 3:45
Oliver Burmeister
Chair of the CCE

Topic: The way forward and summary

3:45 Close